

The Essentials of Drawing
With
Professor Tim Tozer
University of Wisconsin Stout
Presented by
The Valley Art Association

Join fellow artists as Professor Tozer takes the class through the essentials of effective drawing. We will draw a still life in the class area. Skills will progress from beginning structure to refinement and finishing.

August 15, 10 - 4 and 16, 9:30 - 3:30.

VAA members fee: $175 (both days) non-members $195.

Deadline for application: August 8th, 2026.

Lunch provided. Some supplies provided.

For more information and to register click:<https://forms.gle/Bsa5QJ7Hnco49mSe6>.

This promises to be an engaging two days. These skills will improve your art.

Questions email: vaapresident2024@gmail.com.

A resident of Minneapolis, Tim Tozer was born in Portsmouth, UK. He studied at the Winchester School of Art and the University of Ulster at Belfast, Northern Ireland. In 1994, he moved to the U.S. upon receiving the Andy Warhol Scholarship for study at the New York Academy of Art. After earning an MFA in painting, Tozer taught painting and drawing at various institutions, including Indiana University and the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. He currently teaches painting and drawing at the University of Wisconsin – Stout. In 2022, he was a participant in Sky Art's Portrait Artist of the Year, reaching the semi-finals. He is represented by Groveland Gallery, Minneapolis.

